

HERE'S HEALTH FOR YOU.

Truth Omnipotent.

The time-serving politicians and the "anything-to-win" Democrats who call it wisdom to fall in with the crowd and to accept as final the insolent boasts of commercialism and plutocracy, will find food for thought in the last volume of the French Revolution. In Chapter VII, entitled "The Whiff of Grape-shot" Carlyle testifies to the omnipotence of truth. "Hast thou considered how Thought is stronger than Artillery-parks, and (were it fifty years after death and martyrdom, or were it two thousand years) writes and unwrites Acts of Parliament, removes mountains; models the world like soft clay? Also how the beginning of all Thought worth the name is Love; and the wise head never yet was, without first the generous heart? The Heavens cease not their bounty; they send us generous hearts into every generation. And now what generous heart can pretend to itself, or be hoodwinked into believing, that Loyalty to the Money-bag is a noble Loyalty? Mammon, cries the generous heart out of all ages and countries, is the basest of known gods, even of known devils. In him what glory is there, that he should worship him? No glory discernible; not even terror; at best, detestability, ill-matched with despicability!" If the Democratic party is to build upon a permanent foundation it must recognize the fact that truth alone can give to the party hope of perpetuity, and back of all thought must be love. Deep love for the common people and belief in human brotherhood will make the Democratic party an invincible force. Unless the party is an exponent of thought and truth; unless it is built upon love—not self love, but brotherly love—it cannot hope for more than temporary and trifling success. Democracy when rightly understood is a religion, for it is founded upon the doctrine of equal and inalienable rights. Let no sacrilegious hand drag the party down to the sordid plain of Mammon worship.—The Commoner.

On April 27th the war department made public that portion of the report of Gen. Miles with respect to misconduct of officers and soldiers in the Philippines. This refers to substantially the same charges which have been published before. Gen. Bell's reconcentro measures were condemned by Gen. Miles as being in direct violation of law.

Mrs. Laura S. Webb,
Vice-President Woman's Democratic Clubs of Northern Ohio.

"I dreaded the change of life which was fast approaching. I noticed Wine of Cardui, and decided to try a bottle. I experienced some relief for the first month, so I kept on taking it for three months and now I menstruate with no pain and I shall take it off and on now until I have passed the climax."
Female weakness, disordered menses, falling of the womb and ovarian troubles do not wear off. They follow a woman to the change of life. Do not wait but take Wine of Cardui now and avoid the trouble. Wine of Cardui never fails to benefit a suffering woman of any age. Wine of Cardui relieved Mrs. Webb when she was in danger. When you come to the change of life Mrs. Webb's letter will mean more to you than it does now. But you may now avoid the suffering she endured. Druggists sell $1 bottles of Wine of Cardui.

This institution is designed and constructed for the comfort and accommodation of patients who seek relief and recuperation and the recovery of lost health. Its location is admirable for this purpose. It is on the Iron Mountain Railway, 89 miles south of St. Louis, and 640 feet above that city. Nestled at the foot of Shepherd Mountain, embowered among majestic trees, just off the main street, and free from its noise and dust, and alongside and connected with, the famed Emerson Park, with its shady walks and drive-ways, Sylvan Lake and Grant Spring, and their attractive surroundings, no more beautiful or restful retreat for the invalid and convalescent, or the weary and careworn, can be found in all America.
